| Modern Slavery Act Policy

1. GENERAL

Last Mile designs, installs, owns and operates multi-utility infrastructure including gas, electricity, water, sewerage, meters, heat and cooling, connecting new build properties across Great Britain.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

It is Last Mile's Policy to conduct its business in a fair, open and honest manner and to take a zero-tolerance approach to all slavery, servitude, forced or compulsory labour (including child labour) and human trafficking (each and together referred to as "Modern Slavery"). In order to achieve this, Last Mile is committed to:

- Acting professionally, fairly and with integrity in all business dealings and relationships wherever we operate.
- Prohibiting all forms of Modern Slavery, all of which are a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights and have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.
- Compliance with all laws relevant to countering modern slavery including the Modern Slavery Act 2015, approved Codes of Practice and industry recognised guidelines.
- Ensuring, so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, that contracts contain provisions allowing for automatic termination for breach of the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Investigating thoroughly any actual or suspected breach of this Policy, or the spirit of this Policy.
- Implementing effective systems and controls to ensure Modern Slavery is not taking place anywhere in our business or in any of our supply chains.
- Consulting with staff and providing appropriate information, instruction and training to ensure all staff are aware of their Modern Slavery Act 2015 obligations.
- Undertaking an ongoing programme of audit and ensuring that enough resource is allocated as required for the implementation of this Policy.
- Communicating this Policy to staff, contractors, suppliers, customers and other interested parties.
